Peoples State Bank is not responsible for any fee(s) that you may incur due to insufficient available funds or insufficient credit availability in your bill pay checking account and/or overdraft plan. If you wish to discontinue use of Online Bill Pay, you must delete all scheduled payments and contact the bank to cancel the service.

Payments made through Online Bill Pay should allow a sufficient amount of time for the payments to reach the payee. There will be a delay between the Payment Date (the date your payment is sent) and the date the payee receives that payment. To avoid finance or other charges, you must schedule a Payment Date at least five full business days prior to the due date of your payment to allow the payee to receive the payment and credit your account. Peoples State Bank does not guarantee any payment will reach the payee within five business days.

Funds for all bill payments (whether the payments are made electronically or by check) will be withdrawn from your bill pay checking account on the scheduled Payment Date. Peoples State Bank is not liable for insufficient funds or insufficient credit availability in your bill pay checking account and/or overdraft protection plan. Peoples State Bank will also not be liable if a legal order directs us to stop withdrawals from the account or if the account is closed or frozen.

Peoples State Bank does not monitor the payments that are made through Peoples State Bank. If you are an individual and you use Online Bill Pay to pay bills, you assume the entire risk of loss. Peoples State Bank shall not be held liable for loss, claims, demands, judgments and expenses connected in any way with such use.

Peoples State Bank assumes no responsibility for any charges, fees or other actions taken by the payee resulting from a payment that you have not scheduled properly. In addition, we will not be liable for any bill payment that fails to properly transmit in Online Bill Pay.

I understand that I have the ability to pay my bills and make other payments through Online Bill Pay. I understand that with this service, I can initiate and authorize payments from my bill pay checking account to my designated payee providing I am an authorized signer on the account in which I am requesting payment. I have read and understand the guidelines as set forth in the Bill Pay disclosure.
